Michael Murtaugh has been named the new director of purchasing for Eddie V's Restaurants Inc., headquartered in the Scottsdale Airpark. Murtaugh, who most recently held the same position at the Arizona Biltmore Resort, will be responsible for overseeing the purchasing for all Eddie V's, Wildfish Seafood Grille, and Roaring Fork restaurants. He resides in Scottsdale with his 15-year-old son, Connor.

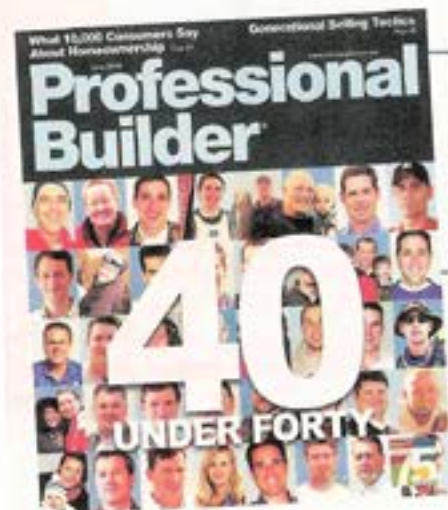

Cold Stone Creamery's frozen yogurt was introduced earlier this year in select markets, but this summer the Airpark-based company released the product nationally.

Scottsdale Quarter has launched its Lunch at The Quarter promotion. Now through August 31, guests carrying the Scottsdale Quarter discount card will receive up to 25 percent off their weekday lunches at participating restaurants. Get your free card at www.scottsdalequarter.com/info/lunchdiscountcard.cfm.

Fox Restaurant Concepts' flagship NoRTH restaurant at Kierland Commons underwent an extreme makeover in July. While the menu remains the same, the sleek, sexy décor was revamped to take on the feel of a rustic, Italian farmhouse, utilizing vintage and reclaimed materials. The remodel of NoRTH Kierland coincides with the construction of a new NoRTH that will open this November in Arcadia at 40th Street and Camelback.

Lotus Bar & Grill brings a new concept to North Scottsdale: "Contemporary Asian Meets Classic Sports Bar," at 9030 E. Via Linda. Guests can choose from two distinct dining experiences—either the Lotus Bar for a game and a drink, or the Lotus Grill for a meal with family and friends. Both experiences feature Asian-inspired dishes and cocktails, a wide selection of beers, and carefully selected wines and sake. The locale boasts 20 TVs with DIRECTV programming.

Mike Fratantoni, president and co-owner of Desert Sky Development Custom Homes Inc. of North Scottsdale, will be among those featured in the "40 Under 40" cover story in Professional Builder Magazine.

Richard K. Walker, chairman of Walker & Peskind, was recently nominated and selected by his peers as one of Arizona's Finest Lawyers—an organization that recognizes and profiles lawyers for their noteworthy achievements and public service in positions of honor and distinction. Walker & Peskind serves clients out of its recently expanded Scottsdale office at 16100 N. 71st St.
