Reported on July 6

$3,200,000

Michael and Robin Matzek paid cash for a 6,796-square-foot home with 1,500-square-foot pool originally built in 2009 on the western side of the Silverleaf Club in Scottsdale. Michael is president of Westwood Investment Corp., a land-development company in Boise, Idaho. The home was sold by Geoffrey Scott "Geoff" Jenkins, a major-league outfielder who played for the Milwaukee Brewers from 1998 to 2007. The award-winning home was built by Desert Sky Development, Custom Homes, Inc.

$2,400,000

Eric and Wendy Dunn of Norwich, Kan., paid cash for a 4,194-square-foot home with pool on the southwestern side of the Silverleaf Club in Scottsdale. The home was sold by Jeffrey L. Kemp, president of Kemp & Associates in Salt Lake City, an international probate-research firm specializing in forensic genealogy. Last week, Kemp paid $5.25 million for a six-bedroom, eight-bath, 11,536-square-foot home with heated pool and spa and separate guesthouse on the eastern side of the Silverleaf Club.

$2,100,000

Richard Mark Buchanan and his wife, Leslie, paid cash for a 3,924-square-foot home with a pool at Vista Linda in Paradise Valley. Mark is president of Pelle Pelle Inc., a leather-outerwear company in Michigan. The home was sold by Todd McCandless and Brian T. Kissinger, principals of Thomas and Todd Landscape Design in Paradise Valley.

$1,900,000

Billy Mayfair and his wife, Tami, bought a 6,512-square-foot home with a 1,000-square-foot pool originally built in 2005 northeast of the Starfire at Scottsdale Country Club. Billy is a professional golfer who has played on the PGA Tour since 1988. The home was sold by William George Jilbert and Lynn Louise Jilbert as trustees of the William G. Jilbert and Lynn L. Jilbert Living Trust.
